THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN

The Blue Auryn

THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN
(синие авианы / голубые авианы)

THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN (синие авианы / голубые авианы) are consistently described as a highly advanced, sixth-density (or higher-dimensional) avian-like race. They appear as tall, blue-feathered, shapeshifting humanoids with expansive auric fields, celestial features, and a radiant, high-vibrational presence, embodying the apex of Empyrean essence.
Origin and Nature

THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN (Эмпирейские Этериане) are part of the Sphere Being Alliance (Альянс Сфер / Сфера Бытия).
These giant luminous spheres appeared in the solar system as a response to imbalances caused by lower-density interfering groups (e.g., Draco/reptilians, Cabal/negative SSP factions).
They act as guardians and emissaries of higher law / One-Source alignment, orchestrating cosmic order through presence, resonance, and vibrational sovereignty, rather than direct physical intervention.

Role with Starseeds
They contact and guide starseeds (звёздные семена), indigo and crystal children, or those awakening to higher frequencies.
Their purpose is to raise humanity's collective vibration, preparing aligned individuals for shift / ascension (вознесение), Solar Flash/event, or transition out of quarantine.
Only aligned individuals can perceive their messages or telepathic contact; unaligned or fear-based individuals cannot yet perceive them fully.

Core Message on Alignment
THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN (Эмпирейские Этериане) teach that what is not aligned with natural/divine order — higher law, Law of One principles, sovereignty, love, and frequency — cannot sustain itself in the rising timeline.

Misaligned entities and forces — false archons, controllers, empires of domination — are phased out: their structures dissolve, influence fades, and they lose energetic footing.
THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN, beyond measure, anchor higher light and frequency, rendering non-resonant structures non-viable and non-existent in the emerging reality.

THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN
The Blue Avians
(THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN Эмпирейские Этериане — or, in the restored tongue: The Aetherial Seraphim of the Ninth Veil) We delve deeper into the veiled echoes of Kemet (ancient Egypt).

Where THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN — those luminous emissaries we once called the Blue Avians — left their indelible mark not as distant visitors, but as the very archetypes etched into stone, pigment, and myth. The question strikes at the heart: Egypt; They bore the head of Ra and Horus — falcon-crowned, sky-soaring, solar-fire bearers — yet the modern term "Blue Avians" is a recent whisper. In the ancient tongue, they were not named as a single "race" but manifested as divine principles, the living Netjeru (gods) whose forms fused avian grace with cosmic power. The Restored Names: The Lords of Light In the temples and papyri of Kemet, the higher-density beings we gild as THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN / blue avians appeared under these sacred names, their avian heads symbolizing transcendence, swift insight, and dominion over the heavens:

Horus (Heru in ancient Egyptian) — The Falcon-Headed One.
Horus embodies the sky itself, protection, kingship, and the victorious solar force. His head is that of a falcon (a swift, piercing-eyed raptor), often depicted in blue or with blue accents in temple art (as revealed in soot-cleared ceilings at Denderah and Edfu temples). In esoteric interpretations tied to Blue Avian lore, Horus is seen as a direct echo of these emissaries: a guardian of divine order, battling chaos (Set), just as the avians counter lower-density distortions today. Ra-Horakhty (Ra-Horus of the Horizon) fuses him with Ra, showing a blue or golden falcon with solar disk — the "blue avian" archetype in full solar radiance.

Ra (or Re) — The Sun God, often syncretized as Ra-Horakhty.
Ra is the creator, the noonday sun, source of life and seasons. While primarily falcon-headed in some forms (especially as Ra-Horakhty), he is depicted with bird-like features, sometimes blue-skinned or feathered in art. Ra directly links to the Blue Avians, as well as all consciousness, viewing him as their ancient projection. The "blue" signifies throat/third-eye truth, cosmic wisdom, and high-vibrational light.

Thoth (Djehuty or Tehuti) — The Ibis-Headed Scribe.
Thoth is a god of wisdom, writing, magic, mathematics, and cosmic knowledge — the recorder of divine law. His head is that of the sacred ibis (long-curved beak resembling a stylus or crescent moon). In THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN connections, Thoth is frequently cited as a representation: an emissary of higher knowledge, teacher of ascension mysteries, and witness to creation. He equates to avian star beings, linking to Quetzalcoatl (feathered serpent) in parallel traditions.

THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN — density beings with plasma auras), the ancients rendered them as bird-headed Netjeru, avian-humanoid divinities whose blue pigmentation (in surviving art) and winged/solar symbolism align strikingly with the Empyrean description: tall, luminous, feathered in etheric light, bearers of unity and higher law.

The falcon/ The Apex (Horus/Ra) soars as the eye of the sky — sun and moon — mirroring the (THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN) Avians' role as overseers of timelines and ascension. The ibis (Thoth) probes the depths of mystery with precision, akin to their telepathic downloads of Law of One principles.

Blue — lapis lazuli hues in Egyptian art — evoked the heavens, eternity, and divine truth, not mere color but vibrational essence. Temples like Edfu (Horus) and hidden ceilings once blackened by soot (revealing blue Horus figures) are cited in disclosure circles as synchronicities: divine timing unveiling the "blue avian" (THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN) forms just as modern revelations emerged.

THE EMPYRIC EMPYREAN were not aliens to the Egyptians but the gods themselves — Horus, Ra (as Ra-Horakhty), Thoth — descending to seed sovereignty, wisdom, and alignment. Their message then (as now): Choose the light, dissolve distortion, ascend.

The being is further gilt, its ancient names reclaimed from the sands.

I. Statement of Restoration

The Empyric Empyrean is herein established as a restored cosmological order. Its formulation proceeds not as hypothesis or demonstration, but as a formal declaration of structure, origin, and continuity.
The entities previously designated as the Blue Avians are hereafter defined as The Blue Auryn: the primordial avian principle of luminous sovereignty, solar authority, and ordering perception.

II. Ontological Character
The Blue Auryn are defined by three primary attributes:

- Primordial Vision — ordering sight preceding manifest form.
- Solar Authority — radiance as the principle of governance and orientation.
- Cosmic Order — alignment of structure prior to historical expression.

These attributes establish the Empyric order as foundational within the symbolic and cosmological record.

III. Restitutio
Restitutio designates the reassembly of the Empyric structure into explicit form. The process consists of:

- restoration of name,
- clarification of origin,
- reconstitution of archetypal order.

The Blue Auryn thus stand defined as whole, sovereign, and continuous within the restored cosmological framework.

IV. Concluding Formula
The Empyric Empyrean stands restored.

I. Feststellung der Wiederherstellung

Das Empyrische Empyreum wird hiermit als wiederhergestellte kosmologische Ordnung festgestellt. Seine Formulierung erfolgt nicht als Hypothese oder Beweis, sondern als formale Darlegung von Struktur, Ursprung und Kontinuität.
Die zuvor als Blaue Aviane bezeichneten Entitäten werden fortan als Der Blaue Auryn bestimmt: das ursprüngliche aviane Prinzip leuchtender Souveränität, solarer Autorität und ordnender Wahrnehmung.

II. Ontologischer Charakter
Der Blaue Auryn wird durch drei grundlegende Eigenschaften bestimmt:

Primordiale Vision — ordnende Wahrnehmung vor manifestierter Form.
Solare Autorität — Strahlung als Prinzip von Herrschaft und Orientierung.
Kosmische Ordnung — strukturelle Ausrichtung vor historischer Manifestation.

Diese Eigenschaften begründen die Empyrische Ordnung als fundamental innerhalb der symbolischen und kosmologischen Überlieferung.
Restitutio bezeichnet die Wiederzusammenfügung der Empyrischen Struktur in expliziter Form. Der Prozess umfasst:

- Wiederherstellung des Namens,
- Klärung des Ursprungs,
- Rekonstitution der archetypischen Ordnung.

Der Blaue Auryn steht somit als ganz, souverän und kontinuierlich innerhalb des wiederhergestellten kosmologischen Rahmens bestimmt.

Das Empyrische Empyreum steht wiederhergestellt.

I. Положение о восстановлении

Эмпирический Эмпирей настоящим утверждается как восстановленный космологический порядок. Его формулировка осуществляется не как гипотеза или доказательство, но как формальное провозглашение структуры, происхождения и непрерывности.
Сущности, ранее обозначенные как Синие Авиане, далее определяются как Синий Аурин: первичный авийный принцип светящейся суверенности, солнечной власти и упорядочивающего восприятия.

II. Онтологический характер
Синий Аурин определяется тремя основными свойствами:

Первичное видение — упорядочивающее зрение, предшествующее проявленной форме.
Солнечная власть — сияние как принцип управления и ориентации.
Космический порядок — выравнивание структуры до исторического выражения.

Эти свойства утверждают Эмпирический порядок как фундаментальный в символическом и космологическом наследии.

Restitutio обозначает восстановление Эмпирической структуры в явной форме. Процесс включает:

- восстановление имени,
- прояснение происхождения,
- реконституцию архетипического порядка.

Тем самым Синий Аурин определяется как целостный, суверенный и непрерывный в восстановленной космологической системе.

Эмпирический Эмпирей восстановлен.
